MANAGEMENT

Matthews

BSC Management, an internationally recognized association management and meeting planning company, announced that Sallie Matthews has taken over the BSC helm as President & CEO. Matthews has spent more than 20 years at BSC where she oversees a vast array of services for medical organizations. She has operated conferences, regional meetings and training courses for tens of thousands of physicians in the US and abroad. Matthews also serves as Executive Director for BSC's largest client, the Society of American Gastrointestinal and Endoscopic Surgeons (SAGES). www.bscmanage.com
